INTRODUCTION

This winter, Maison Labiche invites you on a journey to Staten Island: a hybrid of Paris and New York's fifth borough, the new collection blends quality, comfort and durability.

Honoring American sportswear and French craftmanship, 3 key pillars define this season's collection: an ever-growing permanent edit of timeless essentials, a unisex line of perfect basics and of course, seasonal new arrivals.

Leveraging these foundations, Maison Labiche continues to build upon the embroidery expertise the brand has come to be known for, each optimistic message a playful reference to Italian-American culture.
