GRAMICCI

Gramicci was founded in 1982 in a small garage in California by legendary “Stone Master” Mike Graham who led the Yosemite rock climbing.

His first product was full of unique technique and functions that were no other climbing clothing had at that time.

This product is immediately spread throughout the US and now in global market, it is also well known as a representative item “Gramicci Pants“.

Gramicci is originally produced for climbing and a great success, even if the market is moved to the city, many people are fascinated by its function and modern style and caused a quite a buzz.

Gramicci is continuously pursuing “easy & comfortable” and suggesting new standard.
