

PITTARI

AW2026

Pittari is a British, family-run knitwear brand specialising in premium staples crafted from British wool and traditional Donegal yarns. Rooted in heritage craftsmanship, each piece is thoughtfully designed with a contemporary sensibility.

Attention to detail, longevity, and sustainability are central to everything we do. We work exclusively with certified partners who share our commitment to responsible production and animal welfare, ensuring the highest standards from raw material to finished garment.

Pittari knitwear is understated yet distinctive, designed for those who value texture, fit, and quiet quality in their winter wardrobe.
